BOOKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- All children taking part in swimming and other water-based activities must be able to swim 50 metres unaided.
- Children will be placed whenever possible on the camp/s of their choice, however Bromsgrove School will offer an alternative course if this is not possible. Activities will only take place if there is sufficient demand, as deemed by Bromsgrove School.
- If after acceptance of a booking the client wishes to change any aspect of the booking, Bromsgrove School will endeavour to effect such an alteration. However if this is not possible the client shall be bound by the original booking.
- Cancellation of Booking: places can be cancelled up to 1 week prior to the booked date with a full refund. After this date no refund will be given.
- No compensation will be paid or refund given if courses arranged by Bromsgrove are cancelled due to war, strikes, riot or quarantine, or any other reasons beyond the control of Bromsgrove School. No compensation will be paid or refund given for cancellation of courses due to technical problems with transport or weather conditions, which in the opinion of Bromsgrove School, make the provision or continuation of the course impractical.
- Bromsgrove School, its servants, agents and employees do not accept liability in respect of person injury, sickness, loss or damage to property, unless caused by negligence.
- Any regulations which might be necessary for Bromsgrove School to make in the interests of safety and comfort must be observed by those taking part.
- As in all sports activities, children will be asked to remove all jewellery. Any child wearing jewellery will not be permitted to take part in sports activities.
- Appropriate clothing should be worn during art, craft and cookery, since spillages might occur during these activities.
- Bromsgrove School cannot accept liability for children's personal possessions such as mobile phones or iPads etc.
- Any discounts shown only apply to the camp/s named on the page and may be withdrawn at any time.
- We reserve the right without refund to exclude or refuse any person at any time, prior to or during the camps, if in our opinion that person is not compatible with the general enjoyment and well-being of the camp.
- All the advertised courses are subject to change according to weather, demand, programming requirements and other considerations.
- Children are unable to attend without a completed form, signed or submitted by a parent or guardian. Parents are not to leave their children unless a completed form has been provided.
- First aiders are present at all times at both sites.
