HYMN

All my hope on God is founded

Words by J Neander (1650-80), Robert Bridges (1844-1930) Music by Herbert Howell (1892-1983)

All my hope on God is founded;
He doth still my trust renew,
Me through change and chance He guideth,
Only good and only true.
God unknown,
He alone –
Calls my heart to be His own.

Pride of man and earthly glory,
Sword and crown betray his trust;
What with care and toil he buildeth,
Tower and temple, fall to dust.
But God's power –
Hour by hour,
Is my temple and my tower.

God's great goodness aye endureth,
Deep His wisdom, passing thought:
Splendour, light and life attend Him,
Beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore –
From His store,
New-born worlds rise and adore.

Still from man to God eternal
Sacrifice of praise be done,
High above all praises praising
For the gift of Christ His Son.
Christ doth call –
One and all:
Ye who follow shall not fall.

BIDDING PRAYER

The Headmaster
(Congregation to remain standing)

Beloved in Jesus Christ we have come together to pray for the whole Church of Jesus Christ spread throughout the world; for all Sovereigns, Princes and Governors, particularly our own gracious Sovereign, King Charles, and for all the Royal Family; for all the Ministers of God's Holy Word and Sacraments, and for all the clergy of the Diocese; for the great Council of the Nation in Parliament, and for Judges and Magistrates of the realm; that all these, in their callings, may serve truly and faithfully, to the Glory of God and the edifying and well-being of His people, remembering always the strict and solemn account which they must give. And for all other subjects of this realm, let us pray that they may live in the true faith and fear of God, in dutiful obedience to the King and charity one to another.

And that there may never be wanting a supply of fit persons to serve God in Church and State, let us pray for a blessing on our Universities and all Schools and Colleges, and, here in Bromsgrove, on this School, that here and in all places set apart for God's honour and service, true religion and sound learning may ever flourish and abound.

And let us give thanks to Almighty God for all His servants both living and departed, who have given of their substance or service towards the founding, building and maintenance of our School, such as his Most Excellent Majesty, King Edward VI; Sir Thomas Cookes, Baronet; Charles Whitley; Gilbert Alan Hamilton, 1st Lord Dulverton; David John Walters and Robert Gordon Routh.

Finally, let us praise God for those who are departed out of this life in His faith and fear, praying Him that we may be made partakers with them in the glorious resurrection to life everlasting.

These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the throne of Heaven, in the words in which Christ Himself taught us saying:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS

C.V.Stanford (1852-1924) - Setting in B flat

We praise Thee, O God, we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the heavens, and all the pow'rs therein

(Choir)

To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth
Heav'n and earth are full of the majesty of Thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.

(Choir)

*The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee;
The Father of an infinite Majesty;
Thine honourable, true and only Son.
Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.*

Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.

(Choir)

*When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,*

Thou didst open the Kingdom, the Kingdom of Heav'n to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the Glo...ry of the Father.

We believe that Thou shalt come to be our judge.

(Choir – Quartet)

*We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants,
Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood,
Make them to be numbered with Thy Saints, in glory everlasting.*

(Choir – Full)

*O Lord, save Thy people, and bless Thine heritage.
Govern them, and lift them up for ever.*

Day by day, we magnify Thee;
And we worship, we worship Thy Name,
Ever world without end, ever world without end.

(Choir)

*Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let Thy mercy lighten upon us, as our trust is in Thee.*

O Lord, in Thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

HYMN

Jerusalem

Words by William Blake (1757-1827) Music by Sir C. Hubert H. Parry (1848-1918)

And did those feet in ancient time
walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
on England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
among these dark satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.

PREACHER OF SIR THOMAS COOKES' SERMON

The Venerable Robert Jones
Former Archdeacon of Worcester

HYMN

Glorious things of thee are spoken

Music by Cyril V. Taylor 'Abbot's Leigh' (1907-1991)
Words by John Newton (1725-1807) based on Isaiah 33 Psalm 77

(During this hymn an offertory will be taken for the Parish Church)

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God!
He, whose Word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for His own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See! the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love;
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove:
Who can faint while such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage?
Grace, which like the Lord the Giver,
Never fails from age to age.

Round each habitation hovering,
See the cloud and fire appear!
For a glory and a covering
Showing that the Lord is near.
Thus they march, the pillar leading,
Light by night and shade by day;
Daily on the manna feeding
Which He gives them when they pray.

Saviour, if of Zion's city,
I, through grace, a member am,
Let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in Thy Name.
Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
All his boasted pomp and show;
Solid joys and lasting treasure
None but Zion's children know.

PRAYERS

The Chaplain

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

(Please stand)

*God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King.
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us:
God save the King.*
